AINDT STRATEGIC PLAN

MISSION STATEMENT: To provide members, industry and the community with an independent and professional level of service in relation to the science and practice of non-destructive testing.

1. Promote the discipline of NDT as a profession to industry and the community.	2. Ensure AINDT has a sound financial base to continue its services to its membership.	3. Facilitate the exchange of information between AINDT between members, organisations and overseas organisations.	4. Provide services for the qualification and certification of personnel.	5. To facilitate and promote NDT R&D and application of NDT.
1A Establish a program of career routes and paths for NDT personnel.	2A Maintain sufficient funds to continue AINDT services.	3A Continue membership of: A. ICNDT B. A-PCNDT C. UNDP/IAEA D. ISO 9712 TC 135	4A Continually establish the market needs related to the needs of industry sectors offered by AINDT.	5A Enhanced cooperation regarding NDT activities between organisations such as ANSTO, CSIRO and AMRL.
1B Maintain an AINDT Operations and Quality Manual.	2B Expansion of revenue and membership base.	3B Continue representation on organizations such as: • Standards Australia • AICIP • Others as appropriate	4B. Maintain the Certification Board certification scheme in accordance with ISO 17024.	5B Identify current research and encourage dissemination of information via NDT Australia.
1C Promote the benefits of AINDT membership.	2C Investment of certain financial resources in the development of better services to members and the NDT community.	3C Maintain a high quality journal for distribution to members	4C Market and promote international recognition of AINDT certification.	5C Encourage participation in Branch, Federal and International meetings, seminars and conferences.